MANOA VALLEY AGAIN ASKING BOARD ACTION

Movement Started to Have Entire College Hills District Improved Under Statute

INSIST ON RELIEF FROM THE PRESENT CONDITIONS

Supervisor Wolter Declares "The Direct Frontage Tax Is a Fake"

Several propositions are being laid before the board of supervisors this afternoon by residents of Manoa valley who have appeared before it to advocate or oppose the improvement of lower Manoa road.

The meeting this afternoon is a continuation of one from Wednesday evening. A petition of protest against the improvement of the road, which is planned to be accomplished under the provisions of the direct frontage tax statute has been filed with the board, but several of the signers have now asked to withdraw their names and, when this is done, the protestants will not represent enough property to stop the work.

But notwithstanding this, a movement was started, and was undecided at the time the Star-Bulletin went to press, to have the entire district of College Hills improved under the statute, the board taking the initiative. Supervisor Wolter spoke for or against this—it was not clear which—and ended by asserting that "the direct frontage tax is a fake."

The board is going into the matter carefully and lengthily and is hearing all the protestants, or others who wish to speak on the subject.

The Manoa Valley improvement project was deferred until the next meeting.

JARED BALDWIN PASSES AWAY IN PAIA HOSPITAL

Was Operated Upon Last Night for Appendicitis, Death Claiming Him This Morning

(Special Star-Bulletin Wireless)

WAILUKU, Maui, June 27.—Jared Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baldwin, died here this morning following an operation for appendicitis, which was performed last night.

Dr. Judd operated upon the young man at the Paia hospital. Besides appendicitis there were complications which are believed to have contributed to his death.

Jared Baldwin was the sixteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Baldwin of Hamaunui and had just returned from his vacation from Hitchcock's Military Academy at San Rafael, California. He had been through a number of serious illnesses during the past school year and had also worked very hard at his studies, all of which made him less able to stand the operation.

He was a boy very much beloved by his schoolmates, both here in the islands and at Hitchcock's academy in California, and the sympathy of the whole community will go out to his parents in their sad bereavement.

SUNDAY BALL GAME STARTS AT 3 SHARP

Tomorrow's baseball game between the All-Chinese and University of California teams will be started at 3 o'clock, not at 3:30 as originally advertised. The game this afternoon is scheduled for 3:30.

There has been an enormous advance sale of tickets for the Sunday game, and a record crowd is in prospect.

The California collegians go up against the Portuguese Athletic Club this afternoon, and the game should be a good one. It will be the first time the Californians have faced Medeiros, and he may prove as effective as he did against Stanford.

MANY OUTRAGES COMMITTED BY THE MEXICANS

Harold Mapes, Fresh from the Scenes of Cruelties, Relates Familiar Incidents

ONE-EARED MEN HAVE MET FORCES OF GEN. HUERTA

Declares Intervention by U. S. Will Eventually Prove to Be Only Solution

Informed by his employers at Guanajuato, Mexico, that the situation is too dangerous to permit his return there, Harold Mapes, a mining engineer, before departing yesterday for the Orient on the steamer Korea briefly sketched the Mexican situation as he has seen it.

Mapes was driven out of Guanajuato shortly after the Vera Cruz incident and barely escaped with his life. Several times before in Hualisco mining camps attempts were made to kill him.

"Warfare in Mexico," he said, "is not war waged by a unified government but by brigands and bands of unbelievable cruelty. They go from one town to another, pillaging, murdering and looting at will. They claim allegiance first to one power, then to another, as an excuse for their deeds."

"Five contingents are now in the field—the Villa men, Huertistas, Zapatas, Registas and the Felixistas, the believers in Felix D. They are all fighting at cross purposes."

"Of the leaders of these bands, Huerta had the greatest chance of settling the situation in the opinion of American residents in Mexico. Huerta had the friendship of the national army and was a fighter and dictator."

"A dictator is what Mexico needs. No general rule will be effective in Mexico for many years. A hand of iron is what is needed. Huerta came nearer having it than any other aspirant to the leadership of Mexico."

"Had the United States recognized Huerta, Americans in Mexico believe that the present situation could have been averted."

Regarding the most topic of intervention Mapes said: "It is inevitable. There can be no other solution. These warring peoples of Mexico are ignorant, cruel Indians, very few of whom can read or write Spanish. Thousands do not even speak Spanish. It is patent that they cannot rule themselves. They do not want to rule themselves."

"Nor do they want to work. It is easier to pillage and murder than to work. The majority of the fighters are bandits, nothing more."

"As an example of their cruelty, let me cite that almost a hundred men working for me had only one ear each. The other ear had been hacked off by men claiming to be adherents of Huerta. The sufferers were adherents of Zapata."

"Again: coming from Guanajuato, where our mine was stormed seven days by bandits, I met a man named Burley and his wife. Burley had been captured in San Luis Potosi by bandits who removed the skin from his feet, then had him run over sharp stones heated by the tropic sun. Greater outrages were committed upon Mrs. Burley."

"In every instance they show hatred of the United States. Moreover they do not respect the United States. One American whose property was pillaged, objected, and they stood him up at sunrise, pinned his American citizenship papers to his breast and shot him. This was in Chihuahua. Fortunately all Americans are now out of Mexico. Immediately after the Vera Cruz incident the lives of American citizens were worth nothing and those who escaped were fortunate indeed. I was one of the fortunate ones. In the meanwhile billion dollar properties are being looted and are idle."

PLANS TO ALLOW LEAH HOME SUM OF $450 MONTH

Pacheco's Suggestion Would Take Away Appropriation of the Promotion Committee

A plan is underway by the supervisors and being advocated by Supervisor M. C. Pacheco, which, if adopted, will mean a new financial arrangement between the board and the Leahi Home.

It is planned to give the home a flat appropriation of $450 a month, which is to be considered as a fee for the care of ten city and county patients. When one patient drops out, another is to take his place, so that ten will always be at the home.

This is about double the amount that has been given the home, and to make up the difference it is planned to drop the appropriation to the Promotion Committee entirely. Before the last semi-annual period the committee drew down $250 a month from the board.

GOVERNOR IS IN SYMPATHY WITH OTHER ISLANDS

Assures Hiloites That He Is Ready to Do Everything Possible for Them

UPHOLDS ACTION OF THE PRESENT ADMINISTRATION

Speech is Wide in Range, Sincere and Brimful of Common Sense and Encouragement

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

HILO, June 26.—"I have always had a great deal of sympathy for the outside islands; I feel they have not received fair consideration in the past."

"Hilo ought to have its chance; you'll get your chance if your governor has anything to say about it. 'The territory cannot go into the business of building coaling stations, but if I can see my way clear to help you in any reasonable way, I'll do so.'"

"I am not in favor of monopoly. 'There is only one thing that can prevent you from having your big shipping port; lack of business sufficient to warrant it; but if, in your good judgment, you deem it necessary to have a coaling station, I'm going to help you to get it.'"

"Don't expect my kokua on the Cooper railroad franchise."

"The president's attitude toward Hawaii was outlined when he said, 'We do not wish to do anything to injure Hawaii.'"

"I believe his present delay in tariff matters is to further consider the sugar situation and what effect the revision is going to have."

"An attempt to stir the administration is the worst move you can make; I know the administration does not like the way it is being treated by the press."

"Concerning that affair with Mexico we older men do not want war; we know full well what General Sherman said of it is true; we don't want to conquer Mexico, it would cost us probably hundreds of thousands of lives unnecessarily."

Above are excerpts taken at random from the talk of Governor Pinkham to eighty of Hilo's business men who sat down with him at the Board of Trade's banquet at the Hilo Hotel last Tuesday evening. The territorial governor's speech was remarkable in its wide range of topics, its ring of sincerity and sound sense and the encouragement it held out to commercial enterprise on the Big Island.

Men who had listened to the governor on previous occasions, at Honolulu, declared his address Tuesday night one of the best efforts they had ever heard from him. To a large extent it was extemporaneous and he spoke just as the spirit moved him. Necessarily discussion of each subject was brief, for he spoke probably

PAUL ISENBERG CANDIDATE FOR LEGISLATURE

Consents to Become Candidate for Representative From the Fourth District

Announcing his candidacy for representative from the fourth district, Paul R. Isenberg, who has been reported as a candidate for several different offices, addresses the following letter to the public, through the Star-Bulletin.

Honolulu, T. H., June 27, 1914.

Sir:—As my name has been mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination for mayor of Honolulu, and as I have myself considered the advisability of seeking a nomination by the Republican voters for that office, I deem it proper to announce at this time that I have decided not to be a candidate. This action on my part is due to the many friends of mine who have stated their willingness to support me — to other aspirants for the nomination, and to the Republican party itself.

My determination not to be a candidate has been arrived at through no disinclination on my part to hold the office. It is an honorable ambition to seek the office of mayor of Honolulu. While the responsibilities are great, the opportunities for carrying out effect plans for constructive reform in our local government are likewise great. It would afford me no small pleasure to devote my very best efforts towards making our city—the city in which I have lived for so many years—the city which I love—a well governed, a well regulated, municipality. A clean, clear-cut business administration of the affairs of the city will accomplish this result, and should I have been a candidate and been chosen by the voters, such an administration would have been my aim.

Nor is my determination not to be

KINGSBURY, IN LETTER, TELLS OF AH SAM CASE

Considers It Duty to Conserve Good Reputation of Court and Its Judge

EXPLAINS HIS ACTIONS AS JURIST AND AS MAN

Explains Reason for Allowing Expenses According to Law and Custom

Judge Selden B. Kingsbury, of the second circuit court, Maui, against whom charges have been filed with Chief Justice Robertson by Attorney Eugene Murphy of Wailuku, has sent to the editor of the Star-Bulletin the following letter:

To the Editor of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin:

Sir:—I consider it my duty to conserve the good reputation of the court over which I preside and of the Judge thereof acting as such because such reputation is a public good and the most precious public asset pertaining to the judiciary. It is a serious matter and one destructive of the power for good of a court for its reputation for honor to be destroyed.

It is charged that the Judge of this court denied that he acted as judge in regard to getting a safe asylum for a girl called Lucy Ah Sam and that afterwards the judge, acting as such, allowed the actual necessary expenses including an attorney fee incurred when he was, as Judge, called to Honolulu to defend against an accusation made against him as judge in the supreme court.

It is true that in making my defense as a Judge I did deny that in the Ah Sam matter I had acted as judge. I had to make my defense as a judge for as a judge I was proceeded against. I had to deny that in those proceedings I had acted as a judge in the Ah Sam matter because it was true; and I may add that in the Ah Sam matter I had no jurisdiction as a judge of a court and acted simply as an individual. Having been as judge charged and commanded to make my defense in the supreme court, I allowed the expenses thereof as court expenses. This is according to law and custom.

Respectfully,

(Signed) SELDEN B. KINGSBURY.

J. L. COKE NOT

CANDIDATE FOR U. S. ATTORNEY

Senator James L. Coke will leave next Wednesday on a mainland tour that quite likely will extend to Washington, but he absolutely denied today that his visit to Washington has anything to do with a personal candidacy for any office in Hawaii.

He has received a cablegram, the source and contents of which are confidential, that will probably necessitate a trip to Washington after the big Elks' convention in Denver. A report current for several days that there is a movement to urge him for

SUFFRAGE INEVITABLE, SAYS CHAMP CLARK IN TALK TO DELEGATION

NOT GUILTY PLEA ENTERED BY JEFF McCARN

Case in Territorial Court Set for Trial September 8—To Continue Prosecuting

(Special Star-Bulletin Wireless)

Thus spoke Jeff McCarn, U. S. district attorney, when he rose in Judge Robinson's division of the circuit court this morning to plead to the indictment charging him with assault with a deadly weapon upon Claudius McBride, the Hilo attorney.

"Not guilty," he stated, when the case was called, and then resumed his seat.

The indictment was read when he first appeared in court two weeks ago, so it was only necessary for the clerk to enter his plea this morning.

Immediately after this was done, A. M. Brown, deputy city and county attorney, addressed the court, asking that the case be set down for early in September.

"I understand that during July and August," said Mr. Brown, "no term cases can be tried. I therefore ask that this one be set down for early in September."

Attorney Lightfoot of Mr. McCarn's counsel interrupted with: "I do not see why this case cannot be set regularly and be called on the criminal calendar."

Judge Robinson agreed to set it down for trial for September 8.

A question being asked now is whether Mr. McCarn will continue acting as the federal prosecuting attorney of the district. While it is admitted that there is no law to prevent him, it is pointed out that with two indictments confronting him, one brought in by the federal grand jury, the other by the territorial, it would be embarrassing for him to attempt to convict others who are similarly indicted.

But Mr. McCarn stated this morning that he plans to carry on the duties of his office regardless of the indictments and will appear in court and prosecute as he has before.

"I will continue doing all the duties of the U. S. district attorney here," he said this morning.

Yesterday, when his assistant appeared in the federal district court alone, Mr. McCarn remaining in his office, it was thought that perhaps the latter would allow his assistant to handle all the court work of the office. The district attorney destroyed that theory, however, this morning with his statement.

ANOTHER DEATH

FROM APPENDICITIS

IN WAILUKU, MAUI

(Special Star-Bulletin Wireless)

WAILUKU, Maui, June 27.—Rachel, daughter of L. B. Kaumehewa, pastor of Wailuku Native Church, died last night from appendicitis. The funeral was held at 4 o'clock today.

The funeral of Jared Baldwin will be held from Paia Union Church tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

FREAR WILL PROBABLY REPRESENT CHAMBER

It is probable that Former Governor Walter F. Frear will represent the Chamber of Commerce before Congress on the movement to secure a restriction of federal construction work here to citizen labor. This is the prospective result of negotiations between Mr. Frear and representatives of the chamber.

John Lapole and John Kenwin, employed in the Brooklyn coopers plant, was fatally burned as the result of a furnace explosion.

DIVISION OF FOUR VESSELS EXPECTED TO COME HERE AT OPENING OF PANAMA CANAL

May Cruise in Hawaiian Waters for Several Weeks Before Rejoining Main Section of Fleet That Will Be Sent to San Francisco for the Panama-Pacific Exposition Next March

(Associated Press service by Federal Wireless)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 27.—It was officially announced today by the navy department that when the fleet traverses the Panama Canal during the official ceremonies next March, a division of four vessels may visit the Hawaiian Islands.

Secretary Daniels has not definitely decided which vessels shall steam across the Pacific to Honolulu but it is confidently believed that the division will cruise in Hawaiian waters for several weeks before rejoining the fleet which will spend considerable time in San Francisco way during the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Teddy Balks When Doctors Prescribe Four Months of Rest as Cure for the Fever

OYSTER BAY, Mass., June 27.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's physicians prescribe four months of absolute rest for the former president as a cure for the jungle fever's effect upon his system.

As a result of the fever the colonel's vitality is considerably lowered and his spleen considerably enlarged.

According to Dr. Alexander Lambert, disobedience to the orders of the physicians would probably mean impaired mental vigor and permanently reduced physical strength.

When informed of this situation the Bull Moose leader said: "But, in four months the campaign will be over. I can't do it."

However, he agreed to abandon his proposed transcontinental tour and to cut materially his program of speeches.

Johnson Wins From Moran, After Twenty Round Battle

PARIS, France, June 27.—Jack Johnson defeated Frank Moran tonight after 20 rounds of indifferent fighting, and thereby retains the heavyweight championship of the world. There was no knockout, the fight going to Johnson on points.

The result was a great surprise to fight experts here, who predicted an easy victory for Johnson, over his inexperienced opponent, and backed their judgment with plenty of coin as 3 to 1. Moran put up a much better fight than was expected, and although at the beginning of the fight, when Johnson was fresh, he was no match for the colored man in speed and science, the latter tired fast, and Moran gained steadily. If the fight had gone to a finish Moran would have stood a good chance of winning.

Although Johnson carried the bulk of the money, a victory for Moran would have proved very popular. The Pittsburgh made a host of friends by his game performance.

For the first three rounds Johnson proved far too clever for his inexperienced opponent, and easily kept at a safe distance from Moran's swings. Moran didn't land a blow for three rounds.

As the fight progressed, Johnson seemed to lose his initial speed, and his footwork was not up to his old standard. He retained the ability to land uppercuts with dazzling swiftness, but his blows lacked steam, and didn't rock Moran as they did Jim Jeffries in the famous Reno meeting.

When the eighteenth round closed Johnson was fast tiring, and honors for the mill were about even. Moran was landing frequently. Just before the bell, Johnson sent home three vicious uppercuts, but Moran merely shook his head and laughed.

To sum up, the fight was inconclusive, and Johnson gave the appearance of stalling. Twice he staggered Moran and then failed to follow up his advantage.

Johnson was arrested for speeding on his way to the Velodrome, but was released when he disclosed his identity, and explained that his presence was urgently required elsewhere.

PARIS, France, June 27.—Betting on the Johnson-Moran fight closed here just before ring time, with Johnson a strong 1 to 3 favorite. Both fighters claim perfect fitness and absolute confidence in the result, but experts say that Johnson looks soft, and that his former speed is gone. His weight is 210, and Moran's 195. All agree that Moran is in splendid condition.

Many women, including members of the nobility, are at the ring-side. Johnson is to receive $30,000, win, lose or draw, while Moran is to get $5000 as his end.

King's Hat is Knocked Askew by Suffragette Pitcherette

LONDON, England, June 27.—Despite extraordinary precautions on the part of the police a delegation of militant suffragettes outwitted the London bobbies and succeeded in bombarding the king and queen with leaflets as the royal couple was about to enter Hyde Park.

One bundle of leaflets knocked the hat of his royal highness askew, while the balance of the bombardment was shed by the queen's parasol.

Two arrests were made, the militants putting up the usual struggle, which has come to be looked upon as part of the day's work by the London police department when it locks horns with the women who are seeking the ballot.

Suffrage Inevitable, Says Champ Clark; Fight in States

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 27.—Speaker Champ Clark, in addressing a delegation of suffragettes today, stated that he realized that woman's suffrage in the United States is inevitable.

However, he advised the women to make their fight in the individual states, stating that he believed that a concerted local fight would accomplish much more than the storming of a Congress, and that the anti-suffrage states would shortly capitulate to the onslaught.

Resolute's Bowsprit Soft, Will Discontinue Racing

NEW YORK, June 27.—A careful examination of the international cup defender Resolute shows that the bowsprit of that yacht is entirely too soft and it has been decided to discontinue racing her during the present series.

It is believed the Resolute will be in condition to make further trial sprints in the next series at Newport.

Submarine Disturbance Sends Vessel Aground in Sumatra

BATAVIA, Java, June 27.—The rescue ship sent out from this port to seek the missing steamer Kintak found that vessel ashore in the straits of Sunda.

A submarine disturbance, resulting from the recent earthquake in Sumatra, was responsible for the help as condition of the Kintak.
